PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

PBS TeacherLine Superior Quality From a Trusted Source

Meeting the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) requirements can be a daunting challenge. However, administrators like you have a valuable ally in PBS TeacherLine®. We understand your concerns and can help you ensure that no child—or teacher—is left behind.

PBS is synonymous with quality programming that both inspires and informs. And administrators trust PBS to deliver high-quality, research-based courses. By partnering with PBS TeacherLine, you can provide your teachers with superior professional development, while achieving your district's strategic goals.

PBS TeacherLine is the premier professional development resource offering online courses for PreK–12 teachers. Trained, certified facilitators lead more than 90 top-quality, six-week courses that span the entire curriculum: Reading/Language Arts, Science, Mathematics, Instructional Technology, and Instructional Strategies.

Our collaboration with respected educational organizations and leading experts ensures that all courses address local and national standards, including NETS•T and NCTM standards, as well as NCLB requirements.

And, because PBS TeacherLine is a U.S. Department of Education grant recipient, these exceptional courses are affordable.

PBS TeacherLine Nurtures Academic Excellence

In any school district, the administrator's goal is to achieve academic excellence in three areas: the curriculum, the teachers, and the students. Innovative teachers who master the curriculum excel in the classroom. They integrate new approaches into standards-based lessons that engage students' interest and yield positive outcomes.

PBS TeacherLine provides PreK–12 teachers with high-quality, standards- and research-based professional development, facilitated in a supportive, online environment.

Our six-week courses offer teachers challenging, in-depth learning experiences that boost student achievement.

Administrators praise our comprehensive approach to professional development because PBS TeacherLine

- MEETS NCLB REQUIREMENTS: Our sustained, classroom-focused coursework aligns with NCLB's heightened expectations for professional development. Teachers build content knowledge, learn and apply research-based strategies, and integrate technology into the curriculum. They become highly qualified in their subject area and more effective in the classroom.
- ALIGNS WITH LOCAL STANDARDS: PBS TeacherLine courses allow districts to align them with specific state or local standards.
- SAVES DISTRICTS TIME AND MONEY: Curriculumwide content is available from a single, trusted source. The online format accommodates both individuals and groups in multiple locations, eliminating the need for substitutes and special training facilities. And, PBS TeacherLine courses are affordable, thanks to a grant from the U.S. Department of Education.
- IMPROVES CLASSROOM PRACTICE AND STUDENT OUTCOMES: Teachers learn how to incorporate technology into subject areas across the curriculum, capturing students' attention with innovative lessons. They also acquire strategies for teaching diverse learners.
- INCREASES JOB SATISFACTION/RETENTION: PBS TeacherLine learners gain personal and professional satisfaction from their achievements. They become more motivated and creative in the classroom, especially in incorporating technology.

“ The online courses allow our teachers the access to quality learning without the long traveling they must do for traditional professional development and graduate courses...”
